

Sales Talent Agency helps quality sales professionals find great sales roles.

January 14th, 2010

Dear Sonya and Jamie,

I would like to genuinely and sincerely thank both of you for your efforts in helping me find my new sales role. With your recruitment expertise, I believe that I have found a position that is an excellent match for my skill set and interests within an organization that will allow me to attain my career goals. Your eagerness to get to know my strengths and interests helped me narrow down my job search. Once I knew what I wanted, you helped me prepare for each stage of the interview process. Your expertise in interview preparation was extremely valuable. I would have no hesitation to recommend Sales Talent Agency as a professional, focused recruiter.

Thanks again,

Nicole Goss
