

September 23, 2009

Dear Sonya,

I would like to take the time to thank you for assisting me in finding a great sales job with a reputable company. I had been desperately searching for a quality Inside Sales role within the technology sphere, however was unsuccessful, until I came across the Sales Talent Agency. I am more than happy with your services; the manner in which they were delivered were utmost friendly and courteous. Your vast knowledge and skills with respects to the IT industry and sales in general were very insightful, and your advice and tips will remain with me in future endeavours.

The Sales Talent agency helped me focus and narrow my job search to positions that would maximize my qualifications and job experiences. Without the Sales Talent Agency, I would still be wasting time interviewing for positions that did not meet my requirements and expectations. Your expertise in formatting sales resumes is exhaustive, which in turn assisted me in placing emphasis on the correct sales metrics and skills within my own resume. I have learned a great deal from you, Sonya!

This was my first time ever having a recruiting agency facilitate my job search, my expectations were exceeded by yourself and the rest of your Sales Talent Agency team. I would definitely recommend the Sales Talent Agency to ALL professional salespeople who are looking for quality sales positions, within quality organizations. Thank you very much!

Sincerely,

Neha Soni