Dear Jamie,

I know that I have said it to you verbally but now want to put my thoughts into writing to let you know what a delight it was working with Sales Talent Agency. Your complete understanding of sales and the requirements that make a successful sales person was instrumental in ensuring that we were able to see top notch candidates. I believe that every one of the top candidates had the potential to be successful with our company. We are thrilled with our new hire!

Jamie, I want to also thank you for your professional approach and for working with me so closely to ensure that we found the "right fit" candidate for our sales team. Your personal commitment to excellence and your inherent "top candidate radar" far surpassed any other agency that I have ever worked with. I look forward to working with you again in the very near future as I believe that it will not be that long before we expand and require another sales person for our team.

Warmest regards,
Sonja
