Hi Kristin,

Wanted to thank you again for your help. I have not worked with a staffing solution representative like yourself. Your help with a frank discussion of my strengths and weaknesses was very helpful and appreciated. I was very impressed with your knowledge, attention to detail, and sincere personal investment when helping me prepare for my interview. This was followed up by a post interview discussion to see if there was anything else that could be done. Any salesperson could learn from your example just working with you. I'm sure that Sales Talent Agency is a better company having you on the team.

Thanks again

Sincerely yours,

Gary Nakashima
