Dear Ms. Sonya Meloff & Ms. Kristin Condon,

Having lived and worked abroad for nearly 5 years and producing great sales results for my employers, I truly never expected to be unemployed!

Like many qualified sales professionals seeking work in today's tough economy, I struggled a great deal in sourcing and qualifying good career opportunities.

It was one thing to find a decent career opportunity; it was another thing to get noticed by the employer!

Though I tried many recruiting agencies in my quest to find the right fit, my experience with you both at Sales Talent Agency was truly comforting during a difficult time in my life.

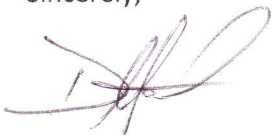

You both demonstrated integrity and professionalism and always made me feel that my interests were your priority. From my experiences these qualities are a rare combination in today's business world!

In a very short period of time my days were busy with interviews, with employers that otherwise would have not known about me.

Thank you both so much for all of your encouragement and support. I can't tell you how valuable your words of advice were to me. I won't forget them!

If there is anything I can do for you both, please don't hesitate to ask. It would be my pleasure.

Sincerely,
