To whom it may concern,

I am happy to recommend the services of Sales Talent Agency, and specifically those of Dean Mitchell. We enlisted the services of Dean, and Sales Talent agency to find us a Sales executive for our Vancouver office. Dean was incredibly patient and diligent in the process that at times was tedious and frustrating. Ever the eternal optimist, Dean was very reassuring and took the lead on sorting through the candidates and following through to the close.

I would certainly not only look to Dean in the future for finding us the right talent, but I would also recommend Dean and Sales Talent Agency to anyone looking for top quality sales talent.

Kind regards,
