To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing to recommend the services of Brandon Sewell & Sales Talent Agency. We recently engaged Brandon to help us recruit a new Account Director for our Business Development team. We were very impressed with the quality of the candidates that were presented, as well as the speed at which Sales Talent Agency operated.

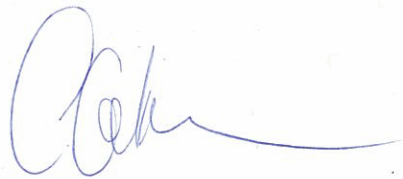

I feel confident in recommending Brandon and Sales Talent Agency to any organization looking at hiring their next sales professional. Brandon and the team are easy to work with. As our key contact, Brandon has always been willing to take the time to discuss my concerns and respond to questions.

We have benefited from partnering with a company that has a deep understanding of analyzing sales talent coupled with the ability to assess and determine the best candidates for our organization and culture.

Most importantly, we were very pleased by the results as we made a great sales hire.

Thank you to the entire team at Sales Talent Agency for your great work and ongoing support.

Kind Regards,

Director, Talent Management
