An Office DEPOT, Inc. Company

Sales Talent Agency, with their national reach/candidate pool, is a pleasure to work with. The knowledgeable Account Managers take the time to get to know your business, culture and the vacant role. They also pre-screen, by way of in-person interview, all of the candidates they present, which means that only those who are truly qualified are presented to the hiring manager. As a customer, working with Sales Talent Agency has been an excellent experience.
