

I've worked with a number of individual recruiters and recruitment firms over the past 15 years and have been very impressed over the level of dedication and success I have had since I have begun working with Sales Talent Agency. Sales Talent Agency have gone above and beyond, surpassing all of our expectations. Nearly all of the candidates they presented were scheduled for first round interviews, and in the end we hired 3 incredibly talented sales executives that all possessed both the experience and cultural fit we were seeking as a company. Their systematic and unique approach to finding the best talent in the market is unrivaled – I very much look forward to working with them in the foreseeable future.
