RE: Reference for Sales Talent Agency and Peymaneh Chychi

To Whom It May Concern:

In my career I have hired many sales and business development professionals and I have worked with a number of sales recruiters along the way. In my experience, Sales Talent Agency is in a league of its own and Peymaneh was great to work with. STA took the time to understand our hiring needs and provided access to the most candidates and high caliber candidates in a short amount of time. Peymaneh was always diligent and responsive, and ultimately helped place two candidates who are already proving to be great additions to our team.

I would highly recommend Sales Talent Agency to anyone looking to source the best selection of sales candidates. I look forward to working with STA again.
