Re: Sales Talent Agency Inc

Recently we had the requirement for a Business Development, Sales person. We contacted Sales Talent Agency, they were very responsive and a meeting was arranged to assess and determine our needs.

Dean Mitchell was my contact person and it became very evident that he was a very efficient and knowledgeable person in the area of recruitment. He took us through all the steps in the hiring process and made what appeared to a daunting task relatively easy.

Dean provided a variety of persons for my review and ultimate interview. With each quality candidate Dean provided a synopsis of their abilities. The many phone calls with request for information was immediately returned and resolved. The “hand holding” provided by Dean through the process resulted in StolsMSS hiring what we believe to be a very qualified employee.

The customer service, friendly people at Sales Talent Agency and the follow-up activity after the hiring was completed was/is exceptional. I would not hesitate to utilize Sales Talent Agency for any further needs for recruitment.

Yours truly,

Tom Brown
